The fourth annual TRIAD picnic was held on July 11, 2012, with many in attendance. The Radford City Sheriff's Office and Sheriff Mark Armentrout hosted the annual event to honor TRIAD members and their dedication to safety in the senior community and the TRIAD program. This year Sheriff Mark Armentrout grilled hamburgers and hot dogs to accompany the many wonderful dishes brought by TRIAD members.

Everyone's favorite side seemed to be an appetizer that TRIAD member Eunice Foster prepared. A dill pickle spear wrapped in a cream cheese covered slice of chipped beef, held together by a fancy toothpick. This hors d'oeuvre puts you in mind of something served on an episode of Mad Men, very 60's cocktail party chic. Let's just say, "Empty platter delicious."

The highlight of the annual TRIAD picnic, excluding Sheriff Armentrout serving you a burger, is the door prize. Every year TRIAD members put their name in the basket hoping they will be the lucky winner. This year that honor goes to Francis Wright, congratulations Mrs. Wright!

The August, 2012, TRIAD meeting will be held on August 8, at the Radford Recreation Department, 10:30am in the large meeting room. TRIAD meetings are free and everyone is welcome to attend. If you have any questions about the Radford TRIAD program or meetings you can contact the Radford City Sheriff's Office at 731-5501. Hope to see you at the August meeting.
